

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

We fail to find any arguments for this "unusual" spring weather. Rain, wind, a bit of hail and a flurry of snow have replaced the bright, warm sunshine which we enjoyed briefly two weeks ago. Summer, we hope, is on its way and we wish there was some way of speeding it.

A man who will deliberately run over a dog, in our estimation, is one of the lowest forms of animal life and we can wish him no better luck than a similar fate for himself. Striking any animal with a car is often unavoidable, but attempting to run away from the act is not, and just because it was our dog, a genial little fellow who loved everyone and would harm nothing, makes the case no worse. We are still sorry that it would not have helped the pooch by administering a good rousing beating to the slayer.

It seems that everyone who fished in the Little Truckee and Prosser creek last week end had good luck with flies. Well, we had our usual luck and came home with a few dried sandwiches, part of our bait and an empty basket.

It appears that we are to have another holiday Sunday. This one, in case you can't remember, is Father's Day. Personally, we never have been able to keep track of all the numerous special days and weeks, but no doubt they serve a splendid purpose, even Father's Day. Incidentally, last Monday was Flag Day.

Have you ever noticed what momentum an unfounded rumor will attain, more particularly if it is detrimental to a cause or person?

Once again the housing shortage in Truckee becomes acute. Daily, we are besieged by newcomers seeking a place to live. It is a good sign, but it is unfortunate we can't place them all.

BOARD CANVASSES BALLOTS OF LOCAL SCHOOL ELECTION

Members of the board of trustees of the Meadow Lake Union High School District met this week to canvass to vote of the election held on June 4.

The results showed three winners, each of whom received one vote. They were C. Edmunds, T. L. Bonner and Frank Brummond. Gilman received 55 votes and Snider 49. Three ballots of the 62 cast were voided.

ROUTINE BUSINESS FEATURES MEET OF LOCAL CIVIC GROUP

Routine business matters, including a brief discussion on ways of keeping Commercial Row clean from the unsightly debris, featured the luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at Besio's Restaurant this week.

The matter of possible incorporation of the town was brought up and discussed briefly, but no action was taken.

The next meeting will be held at the California Restaurant on June 21. President C. B. White presided.

FOREST GUARDS AT UKIAH SCHOOL TO GET INSTRUCTION

Twelve local forest guards, accompanied this week by Rangers H. I. Snider and Garth Flint this week are attending the guard school at Camp Ukiah. The guards and rangers annually attend the school to receive the latest instructions on prevention of fires and proper methods of combating them.

During the absence of the crews, the local areas are being watched by dispatcher Ben Winslow of Truckee and Frank Maher of Martis Peak.

ADDITIONAL LAND TO BE ADDED TO TAHOE FOREST IN MEASURE

A bill has been introduced into the Senate by Senator Pat McCarran, Democrat from Nevada to authorize the appropriation of $325,000 for the acquiring of 105,000 acres of land to be added to the Tahoe National Forest in Nevada.

The Nevada Legislature adopted a resolution at its last session requesting the federal government to take over the area for an emergency landing field and vacation purposes. The measure was said to have been backed by civic interests in western Nevada.

PRECIPITATION IN THIS AREA ABOVE NORMAL

More Than Half An Inch Of Rain Falls Here One Night

YEAR'S TOTAL 27 IN.

Fire Hazard Still Exists In Spite Of Deluge This Week

Between 9 o'clock Tuesday night and 10 o'clock Wednesday morning .55 of an inch of rain fell in the Truckee area, accompanied by a wind which at times neared the 60-mile-an-hour mark, according to officials of the forest service.

The recent stormy weather brought the season's precipitation of 26.39 inches as compared with the accumulative normal of 22.83 inches for this date.

Despite the fact that the rain was more or less general over the entire area, a fire hazard still exists. Dispatcher Ben Wilson of the forest service said. The rain was not sufficiently hard to penetrate the trees and the leaves and grass thus sheltered offered a hazard.

No fire was reported during the past week, but one man, Charles Rogers of Brockway was apprehended and fined $25 for burning without a permit. The fine was remitted by Judge Bliss before whom the case was heard.

TRACTORS WILL BE USED BY WORKMEN IN TAHOE FORESTS

Two "35" Cletrac trailbuilders, mounted on a fifteen ton FWD semi-trailer and designed so that the trailbuilders can be quickly loaded and unloaded by the operator are to be used in the Tahoe, Plumas and El Dorado national forests for the construction of fire lines according to Dewitt Nelson supervisor of the Tahoe national forest.

In the past, experience has proven the value of tractors equipped with the angle-dozor blades in the building of fire lines, although the lack of fast transportation from such equipment has been a handicap.

The problem has been solved in Nelson's view by the assignment of the special line building outfit to Nevada city where it will be stationed during the summer.

NEW EQUIPMENT IS ADDED TO FONTANA LAUNDRY THIS WEEK

Installation of more than $2000 worth of new equipment and the building of a large addition to be used as a sorting room, have been completed at Fontana's Laundry.

The new equipment includes two latest model "Prosperity" pressing machines and a two-speed washer for handling the most delicate garments.

The staff at the Laundry has been augmented until nearly a score of employees are now caring for the fast growing business. The laundry is said to be one of the most fully and modernly equipped in this section of the state.

CAMP RICHARDSON TO HAVE OPENING SATURDAY NIGHT

After one of the speediest rebuilding program at Lake Tahoe on record, Camp Richardson will be formally opened on June 19, A. L. Richardson, manager of the popular resort announced.

Music for dancing will be provided by an excellent orchestra and entertainment features will be offered.

Last fall one of the main buildings and several cottages and the store at Camp Richardson were destroyed by fire. Work was started immediately on replacement and soon the razed structures were replaced.

Then this Spring, just as preparations were being made to open the resort, a second fire destroyed the dining room and other buildings. Again no time was lost and now the camp offers all new modern buildings for its official opening Saturday.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wachhorst brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

A formal afternoon gown of white Chantilly lace and net with flowers for her hair was chosen as the wedding costume while a three piece grey tweed traveling suit with accessories in navy was worn by the bride at the time of Mr. and Mrs. White's departure for points of interest in southern California, including Santa Barbara and Los Angeles.

During her attendance of the Sacramento high school and Junior College, Mrs. White became known in that city and is a member of the Charity League and the Alpha Sigma Sorority.

Routine matters featured the session last night.

SACRAMENTO, June 17, —(UP)—

Total bonded indebtedness of the state, counties and municipalities increased nearly $33,000,000 in the fiscal year ending June 1936.

The bonded debt of the state and its chief political subdivisions now has reached a total of $976,705,841, State Controller Harry B. Riley said. A year ago bonds outstanding totaled $934,834,310.

The total assessment roll of cities and counties is $10,478,305,899.

CASH OUTLAYS OF CITIES REACH AN ALL-TIME RECORD

SACRAMENTO, June 17, —(UP)—

Cash outlays of the cities, counties and the state during 1936-37 reached an all-time high of $973,000,000 and exceeded all previous years by nearly $70,000,000 State Controller Harry B. Riley reported.

Municipalities, including the city and county of San Francisco, showed the heaviest increase. The 1935-36 expenditures, Riley said, were $260,751,430 against $227,958,684 the preceding year.

Largely because the transfer of school costs to the state, the controller said, the state's expenses have climbed from $157,000,000 in 1930 to $358,000,000 in 1936.

Old age and other benevolent pension payments also have contributed heavily to the rise in governmental costs.

The board also approved an exchange of lands in Sections 14, 23, 26, 34 and 35, Township 17, North of Range 9 East, MDM, whereby the government can acquire lands in exchange for other lands.

59 EMPLOYEES OF STATE WORKING IN THIS COUNTY

Headquarters for all state departments are in Sacramento, Los Angeles or San Francisco, but every county in the state receives a share of the state payroll, according to figures compiled by William Brownrigg, executive officer of the state personnel board.

There are 59 state employees working in Nevada County, records showed.

Total numbers of state employees, comprising about one fourth of one per cent of the state's total population, is 20,000. This total does not include university and relief administration personnel.

Sierra county has the smallest number of state employees with eight, and Alpine county is next to last with sixteen.

TRUCKEE BASEBALL TEAM WILL PLAY CALPINE SUNDAY

The Truckee baseball team will travel to Calpine Sunday to meet the sluggers of that district in a return game which promises to be well worth traveling to witness.

The local boys won from Calpine here two weeks ago in a ten-inning game that ended 5 to 4. While the Calpiners are more experienced, older and tougher, the vim and pep of the Truckee boys counteracts this advantage and an evenly matched game is expected.

WINGED MONEY

The next time a man knocks at your door, Madam Housewife, and tries to sell you a Kinda Kute Kitchen Kutup.... "at fifteen per cent off the retail price, for this week only; absolutely indispensable; peeled potatoes, string beans, scrapes dirty dishes and muddled cocktails"....you might throw his glib tongue off stride by asking where he lives.

If he so much as hesitates before answering that simple question, you would be wise to close your door, gently but firmly.

The chances are the peddler comes from a far-away city, that he's high-pressing in your neighborhood for a day and then will move on to another town, taking with him dollars that will never return. Nine times out of ten the very article he tries to sell, or a better one, can be bought in your own community.

Even if the article and price are attractive, you have no guarantee of the peddler's reliability. Your money and order blank may never pass farther than his pocket. This happens often enough to make any housewife a sure loser who consistently does her shopping in her doorway.

Most merchants helped to build your community by supporting local payrolls. There is one who does not, one who takes all he can get and contributes nothing. He is the door-to-door peddler. The thinking housewife patronizes her local merchant. The former's income, excepting the percentage paid out to non-resident wholesalers, remains in the community. The latter, through price savings in mass purchases leaves thrifty cash in its patrons pockets.

Both keep dollars at home, where they belong.

THE ROAD'S UPHILL AGAIN

In San Francisco, executives of the California Housewives League have been getting together this week with the leaders of ladies union auxiliaries, the common objective being a protest against the one-cent increase in the retail milk price.

There is irony in that particular situation (for increased labor costs were factors in the equation which produced the price boost), but there is no humor at all in the progressively Higher Cost of Living which the milk rate illustrates.

That the advance in living costs is no myth of inflation-alarmist origin, many a housewife's budget can testify. Prices in general have risen 2.9 per cent in the past twelve months. Rent has gone up 1.5 per cent, clothing 3.1 per cent, house hold furnishings 4.9 per cent. Food prices head the list. They are 5.7 per cent higher than they were a year ago, and still going up.

HANDS-OFF, AMERICA

Sparks are falling thick and fast around the European powder keg. Already arguing the inevitable, inconsequential question of "Who fired the first shot,"....truculent nations stand ringed about the Spanish civil combat, partisan spectators, a chip on every shoulder.

Wars are started on the same slight provocations which start fists swinging among small boys. Let one European power draw an arbitrary line, dare another power to step over it, and the continent may plunge into another long nightmare of bloodshed, famine and ultimate sorrow.

American diplomats abroad are instructed to urge the maintenance of a hands-off policy by national cheering sections at Spain's fratricidal row, to warn against the folly of overt, warlike acts. That is the legitimate unfaction of this country's diplomacy. With performance in this role of neutral counselor however, America's duty to the sky-high ideal of permanent international peace reaches its natural end.

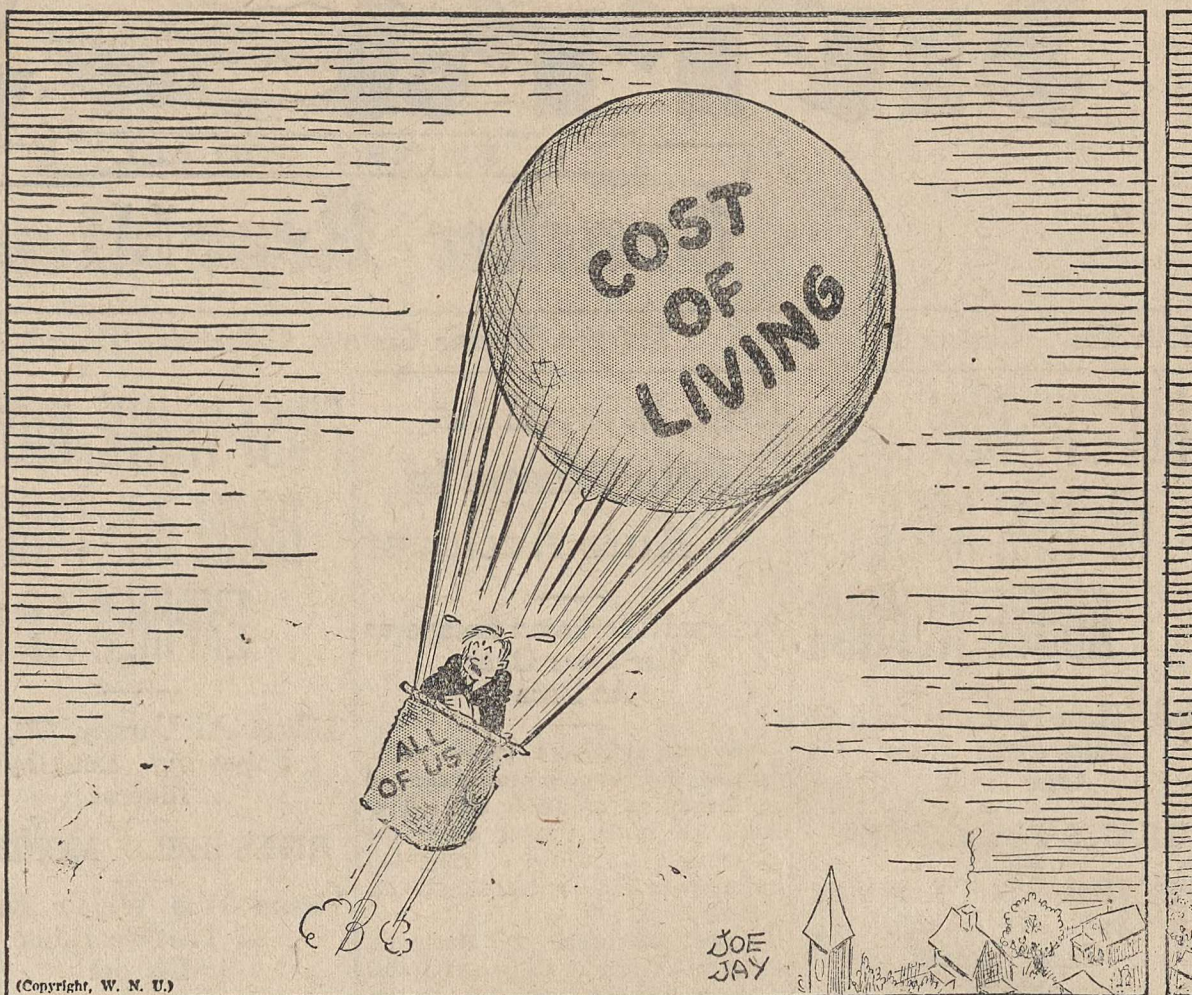

The United States paid for Europe's last great war. We fought it and thought we won it "to make the world safe for democracy," only to witness the subsequent births of those twin monsters, Communism and Fascism, which now threaten the peace of an entire continent with their mutual hate.

American blood has already been spilled in Spain. Adherent interests here are already capitalizing on the deaths of American volunteers.

We must guard against development of a partisan attitude toward Europe's troubles. We must hold in mind that the real struggle there opposes Communism and Fascism, and that we have nothing in common with either. We must realize that Americans who volunteer to fight Europe's battles are just as foreign to the ideals and interests of the United States as are the flags they elect to follow.

Politically Speaking

By GEORGE E. HELMER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, June 17 —(UP)—The probable outcome of a grand jury investigation into charges of legislative bribery and corruption has become an increasingly popular subject of speculation since the 52nd legislature adjourned May 30.

One of the most widely discussed points in the case so far has been the course the defense will take in seeking to refute charges of an indictment accusing Assemblyman Gene Flint, Los Angeles, of attempting to bribe a fellow legislator to vote favorably on the Welsh tideland oil bill.

Defense Counsel Clifford A. Russell's announcement that the defense would not attempt to pick technical holes in the indictment, but would attack "sufficiency of the findings," appeared to be a possible tip off on the course to be taken.

It was understood that the testimony which clinched the grand jury's action in returning the true bill was that of Assemblyman Fred Reeves, who reportedly related that Flint left a sealed envelope supposedly containing money on his desk during assembly consideration of the Welsh bill. Reeves, it was understood, told the grand jurors he returned the packet to Flint, unopened.

It is considered that Russell will have scored a major point if no one can say positively that the envelope contained currency. Observers are anticipating an interesting court battle in any event, since Russell is regarded as one of Sacramento's most able criminal attorneys.

On the other side of the picture, District Attorney Otis D. Babcock is confident that he has an airtight case. He is ready to take it into court "within a reasonable time," he told interviewers on his return from several days' investigation in Southern California.

The investigation, which Babcock undertook at the behest of both of the legislative houses, has not been easy sailing for the prosecutor and he evidenced the strain upon his return from Los Angeles. He appeared fatigued physically and no little wear with dozens of letters, telegrams and phone calls which have eluded his office since the inquiry began.

A typical example was a letter from a southern California editor demanding that the investigation include defeat of a bill which would have increased the personnel of the horse racing commission and thereby, theoretically at least, open the way for a second race track in the south. The prosecutor said he definitely would not follow up this lead. His activities would be confined to a tideland oil and Arroyo Seco re-routing proposals, he said.

I've had dozens of requests for similar investigations," he explained. "They're based on nothing but rumors which we've all heard. There's not a single bit of substantial evidence to back up these requests. It seems everyone whose bill was defeated thinks there was something crooked about it. We obviously can't investigate them all, and for the time being we're going to stick to the oil and road bills."

Babcock's inquiries in the Los Angeles area are included a conference with Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt of South Pasadena, who admitted she gave $300 to Roy Kahl, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the assembly, in payment for his services in lobbying for the Arroyo Seco bill.

The district attorney said Kahl "was employed by the state to perform one service, and I am convinced it was illegal for him to accept money to go around getting votes or arranging committee meetings in behalf of any bill."

A search of the Penal code, however, indicated there is no statute under which a legislative attaché could be prosecuted for such action.

To tender such a consideration to a legislator would constitute bribery, but there was apparently no law covering attaches, and there has been nothing to indicate Kahl did anything more than advocate passage of the Arroyo Seco bill, which, of course, is perfectly legal.

PRUSSO CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY WITH BIG DINNER PARTY

TAHOE CITY, June 17.—Prusso's Forest Inn on scenic War Creek, celebrated its first year of successful operation on Saturday night with a special informal anniversary dinner party, which was generously attended. Unique favors were distributed to the ladies and noisemaking devices provided for all. Dancing was enjoyed during and after the dinner by a gay crowd.

Adding fresh beauty to the low, rustic furnished inn nestled among the pines, a new wide, semi-circular porch containing some 1200 square feet of added floor space at the front of the building has just been completed. Against the massive, towering rock fireplace new springs a tinkling fern lined fountain and miniature waterfall, built of colorful native rock, dotted here and there with maidenhair and Boston fern, tuberose begonia and other bright flowers. Joe Re and son Gene were responsible for the artistic merit of this delightful new addition to Prusso's distinctive diningroom.

TWO ACCIDENTS ON TAHOE HIGHWAYS; PAGE GENE WALKER

TAHOE CITY, June 17.—Two Wyoming boys, Bruce Kendal and Lee Wilkinson, came to grief at Hoppen Hill last week when their car overturned at that dangerous curve. The machine was partially wrecked and young Kendal was given first aid by Dr. Pedersen who stopped the flow of blood from a cut artery in the right arm. Henry's Garage towed the machine to town.

First aid was administered occupants of a truck which overturned on the Dollar grade on Monday. One man, believed a resident of Brockway was said to have received a badly injured right arm. The truck was only slightly damaged, and was righted with the assistance of passing motorists.

Looks like about time to page Gene Walker, Tahoe's conscientious patrolman who winters in the Roseville area. The season's on, Gene, so you'd better be coming back home! We learned today that he is to report back for duty around June 19th.

Mrs. Clara Arietta of Vallejo is the houseguest of the George Bachis of Lake Forest for a week or ten days.

Miss Fay Staker of Sacramento will assist in the operation of the Tahoe telephone exchange for the summer.

Joe Sala, produce merchant of Sacramento, met with an unfortunate accident on Saturday when he fell from the back end of his large truck to the ground at Lake Forest, sustaining painful injuries to his back. Dr. C. B. Pedersen called to attend him declared he would probably be laid up in bed for a week or more.

Chris Neilsen of Tahoe Park gave his long boathouse a fresh coat of red paint this week.

When Chick Welch former Tahoe man, now residing in Reno, decided to enjoy a day's fishing at Tahoe on Sunday with his mother Mrs. Fred Gore, and friends Miss Edna Ernst and Dayton Colville of Reno, he failed to take into consideration the fine crop of fresh mosquitos now inhabiting Tahoe's creeks and dells.

Adding to the misery of being half eaten alive by the hungry horde, the party suffered further grief when Welch attempted to take a shortcut through the upper stretches of Ward Creek and got the car stuck in the soft mud. Even with several added hours to wait until help arrived, nary a fish was caught.

The first wedding to be performed this summer at the outdoor Episcopal chapel near the Tavern will be that of Miss Dortha Stineman of Wheatland and Vernon Baker of Marysville. Bishop Noel Porter of Sacramento will officiate in the presence of friends and relatives at noon June 20th.

Brockway Hotel opened its doors to the summer public on Thursday. Tahoe's residents look forward with favorite anticipation to Sunday, June 20th, the date set for the inauguration of the Southern Pacific's regular summer passenger service. Aside from the increased activity tourist traffic brings, many welcome the late mailing service the outgoing 10:30 train affords nightly.

Mr. and Mrs. Si Pierson motored to Auburn on Friday on business. They were accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Trickey.

A group of Woodland girls, sponsored by the Yolo County YWCA will occupy the YWCA Lake Tahoe camp at Zephyr Cove from June 20 to July 1, according to arrangements completed last Saturday. A group from Nevada will vacation there from July 4 to 20th.

Some 500 delegates, representing the Presbyterian Synod of California and Nevada, will meet for the first time in 75 years of the group's activity in Nevada, on the soil of Nevada at Tahoe July 22 and 29th at Zephyr Point. The Synod owns 30 acres here which has been developed as a recreational center, new auditorium and administration buildings being recently erected in addition to the dining hall and camp grounds already available.

A note from the Henry Hinkle family of the Bettencourt tract discloses they arrived safely at Las Vegas, New Mexico and are very favorably impressed with both the climate which is very cool, and the scenery which is unusually beautiful. They're having the Sierra Sun sent down in order to keep 'tab' on Tahoe friends and neighbors, during their absence.

Tahoe roads are being patched and repaired prior to the increased summer traffic and a new wide stripe down the center of the highway will leave no arguments as to prior side upon which motorists should drive.

The telephone company has a crew of men busy installing wires along the highway south of Tahoe City, replacing the old ones.

The severe cold spell and cloudy weather which enveloped the Tahoe region for a week or more seems to have been dissipated as temperatures rose to near normal on Tuesday. Heavy frosts have been in evidence during the early morning hours.

Early vacationists in at Tahoe who are joined over the week ends regularly by their busy husbands are Mrs. R. M. Yelland and Mrs. Reuben Merwin of Clarksburg who will summer at Cedar Flat near Carnelian Bay.

Assessor and Mrs. Gary Lukens of Auburn were guests of Tahoe Inn for several days last week. They were accompanied back to Auburn by Mrs. Hulda Neilsen who enjoyed a week's vacation at Tahoe visiting old friends and neighbors. Mrs. Nielsen was the dinner guest of the Lukens at Prusso's on Friday evening and enjoyed dinner with the Henry Worens on Saturday.

Clair Heyon, local distributor for the San Francisco Examiner during the summer, accompanied by his wife, is residing for the vacation season at Wagner's Auto Camp in Lake Forest.

Mrs. Hazel Harkness, who was confined to an Auburn sanitarium for a rest of several months, is back at Tahoe, and much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wagner, Mrs. Harkness and Arthur Delbo were Reno visitors on Tuesday.

Mrs. Eleanor Swanson left Friday for Oakland. On Monday she attended the graduation exercises at Moreland Notre Dame Academy in Watsonville, where two of her three daughters received diplomas. They are Misses Marie and Phyllis Miller.

the latter winning the scholarship of her class which would entitle her to two years at Belmont. The Misses Marie, Phyllis and Jacquelyn Miller accompanied their mother back to Tahoe for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brodehl added a new member to their family last week when a little 6½ pound daughter arrived for them at a Stockton Hospital. Mother and little girl were reported doing nicely.

Cal-Vada's formal opening on Saturday night proved one grand and glorious success, a gay throng crowding every available inch of floor space. Reno, Tahoe and Truckee were well represented among the merry-makers.

Miss Florence Bossee has arrived at Tahoe to open Vagabondia Lodge in Lake Forest district. She wintered in San Francisco.

NEW SNOW TRACTOR IS PERFECTED FOR WINTER ACTIVITIES

SACRAMENTO, June 17 —(UP)—United States forest service officials, reporting development of a new type over-the-snow tractor, forecast happier days for California's winter sports fans.

The new device, built in forest service shops at Portland, Ore., has been found capable of hauling up-mountain loads of more than 20 skiers, riding in an attached sled, up grades averaging from 30 to 50 per cent. It underwent severe tests last winter on the steep slopes of snow-mantled Mount Hood.

Equipment of this type will find wide use at winter sports recreation centers in the Sierra, regional forest service executives predicted.

On the steeper slopes the tractor made from four to eight miles an hour, while down hill trips at 20 miles an hour were achieved. Snow depth is no obstacle to the new machine. Its light weight and wide base prevent it from sinking and stalling even in the softest covering.

Forest service men in Oregon reported the tractor definitely has proved its value for towing skiers up mountain slopes to the tops of ski runs and as a shuttle jitney in transporting sports enthusiasts from automobile parking zones across snow to recreational centers.

The complete unit is a single track tractor pulling a sled which accommodates from 20 to 25 passengers. Engineers believe as many as three sleds of this size can be towed successfully.

Overall length is 14 feet, 8 inches. The only existing unit is powered by a commercial truck motor, with transmissions delivering power to drive sprockets at the rear. The motor is housed inside the oval formed by a broad gage track, bolted to a frame within the housing formed by the same track.

Track cleats, or the T-bar type, are of duraluminum, insuring lightness and strength. The tractor is steered by a special power device

WORLD'S FIRST MOVIE FILMED AT CAPITOL

SACRAMENTO, June 17, —(UP)—The first motion picture in the world was filmed not in Hollywood as might be expected, but in this capital city, in 1872. It showed nothing but a running horse and cost $40,000.

Will Day, owner of the cinematograph and other equipment used in the production of the film, which is now in the British museum in London, is authority for the statement. Writers engaged on the Federal Writer's Project, compiling a history of Sacramento, brought the evidence to light.

Day's version of the events which led to the picture, follows:

Leland Stanford, governor of California from 1861 to 1863, owned a stable of fine race horses at Palo Alto. Racing thoroughbreds was his hobby and he had some definite opinions regarding them. Among his prize winners was Occidental, most famous race horse of that period.

It had long been the governors opinion that a horse at full speed has all four feet off the ground at the same time. James R. Keene and Frederick MacCrellish, Stanford's associates in the building of the Central Pacific Railroad were among the experts who disagreed with this theory.

Whereupon, the raid magnate offered to back his contention with a $25,000 wager, which was promptly accepted.

It was finally decided that a picture of a running horse must be made and Occidental, then in training at the state fair grounds, was nominated for the part.

Production of the epic which antedated by more than a quartercentury the filming of Across the Divide, the first commercial picture made in California, in Los Angeles in 1908, began under difficulties.

Because of the great track area special low gearings, the tractor, which will turn within a diameter of 45 feet, will climb unusually steep grades either on bare ground or snow.

Daguerre's tin-types, then the top-flight method of picture-making, proved inadequate and a young San Francisco photographer who had been experimenting with a wet-plate process, was called in.

But this method also proved to slow; speed on exposures was equivalent to the ordinary box camera of today.

In desperation, Stanford called in his chief engineer and the "chronophotographic camera" was devised operated by electricity. The machine contained a revolving glass disc on which sensitized plates were mounted. An opaque shutter disc was made to revolve in the opposite direction.

A series of these machines was set up along the race track, the pictures were taken and then came the long process of getting them ready to project.

The exposures were transferred to celluloid strips, glued together, fitted over a glass disc and run through a projector called a zeotrope.

Finally, however, the film was prepared and all four feet of the horse were shown at times to be off the ground together; Stanford had won his bet.

PROMINENT ACT TO FEATURE FAIR AT CAPITAL IN SEPT.

SACRAMENTO, June 17 —(UP)—Visitors to the California State Fair next Sept. 3-10, will have an opportunity to witness an entertainment feature now playing at the New York Hippodrome, Robert Muckler, secretary-manager, announced.

The act, known as Lottie Mayer's Disappearing Water Ballet, has been engaged for the fall exposition. A score of beautiful girls dressed in gorgeous gowns stroll down a scenic rock garden and vanish beneath the water, emerging in different costumes.

COLLEGE BOXING NEXT YEAR SLATED FOR SACRAMENTO

SACRAMENTO, June 17 —(UP)—The Pacific Coast intercollegiate boxing championships will be staged again in Sacramento next year, I. F. (Crip) Toomey, California Aggies coach announced.

Toomey said the tournament was awarded this city, to be held under sponsorship of the Aggies, at the Pacific Coast Conference meeting in Portland, Ore. The affair has been stated here annually for the past five years.

Dates for the 1938 championships will be set by Toomey after conferences with boxing authorities at the various colleges.

"I would prefer to have the tournament take place on March 18 and 19," Toomey said.

RESERVES GROUP TO HOLD DISTRICT MEET

SACRAMENTO, June 17 —(UP)—The unemployment reserves commission said representatives of four western states, composing region 12 of the Social security board, would meet here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Featuring the three day session will be addresses by Gov. Frank F. Merriam, Merrill Murray and Miss Kathryn Fenn of the Social Security board, and W. Frank Persons, director of the United States Employment service.

Delegates from trade bodies and labor organizations have been invited and anyone interested in employment is welcome. A detailed discussion of this subject is scheduled for Friday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

PEDESTRIAN TOLL ACCOUNTS FOR 64 PER CENT DEATHS

SACRAMENTO, June 17 —(UP)—The pedestrian toll in cities accounts for 64 per cent of all city traffic deaths, according to a recent report of the research board.

In rural deaths, the board found, the pedestrian accounts for only 35 per cent of the total.

Urban places, comprising cities having a population of more than 10,000 are responsible for 47 per cent of all pedestrian fatalities; the remaining 53 per cent occur in rural areas, including small towns.

SPECIAL BILL TO PROVIDE PENSION FOR TOTALLY DISABLED

SACRAMENTO, June 17, —(UP)—A bill providing for pension payments of $35 dollars a month to totally disabled persons, awaiting action by Gov. Frank F. Merriam, will mark an innovation in California pension legislation if the chief executive approves the measure.

Introduced by Assemblyman Wilber F. Gilbert, Los Angeles, the bill would define permanent total disability to make a person eligible for a pension as the condition "where there is present any impairment of body which is sufficient to render it impossible for the average person to follow a substantial gainful occupation and where it is reasonably certain that the impairment will continue throughout the life of the disabled person."

Officials are unable to estimate the number of persons who would be eligible to receive the payments, and calculations of the cost during the next biennium range from $1,000,000 to $6,000,000.

The act applies to individuals over 18 years of age, who are citizens of the United States and who have resided in the state continuously for 15 years prior to filing of applications for aid.

As with all measures waiting his action, Merriam has until July 2 in which to act on the bill. Should he sign it, the law would become effective Aug. 27 of this year.

It would not apply to any person who is an inmate in a public institution, nor to those who have relatives capable of assuming the burden of support.

Individuals who own real property in excess of $3,000 or personal property in excess of $500 likewise barred.

Those eligible to take advantage of vocational rehabilitation would not be included in the act's provision.

Recipients could receive rent from premises owned and occupied by the pensioners, returns from foodstuffs and firewood produced on the premises and gifts, all not to exceed $15 a month, without deduction from their $35 monthly pension.

Disability would be established by the certificate of a qualified physician. Applications for aid would be filed with county boards of supervisors, on forms which would be provided by the department of social welfare and verified under oath.

Costs of pension payments would be borne by the state and counties. For administration purposes, the act creates a division of state aid to the disabled in the department of social welfare.

"I FOUND OUT THAT PONTIAC IS AS RELIABLE AS IT IS BIG, ROOMY AND BEAUTIFUL"

IF YOU COULD see the stacks of letters at Pontiac, backing up in every single detail these enthusiastic words of Mr. Fay, there wouldn't be any doubt in your mind about what low-priced car stands out for economy, dependability, comfort, beauty and everything else you want. will be assisted this summer by Miss Marie Miller.

Bad luck seems to dog the footsteps of Joe and Gen Re. Last week a man hired by them for the summer took 'trench' leave, appropriating for his own use without permission, two new suits of clothes, some checks, and the baby's bank containing close to $17. No trace of him has as yet been found.

Mrs. Jess Sisk and daughter Betty have returned from a vacation of several weeks in the bay cities.

Mrs. Mildred Mawdsley is enjoying a tour of southern California and the coast cities.

BERT WATSON GAINS FOLLOWING ATTACK

TAHOE CITY Jun 17—Bert Watson who for two weeks has fought a desperate fight against pneumonia, is now out of danger and well on the road to recovery. For several days his condition was so critical an oxygen tent was ordered at night by his attending physician, Dr. C. B. Pederson. Highly efficient medical care coupled with the excellent nursing of Mrs. Gerda Kvistbery, pulled Mr. Watson through to safety.

FORMER RESIDENTS HERE—

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Quinn of Mill Valley have been visiting friends here. They were residents of Truckee leaving here seven years ago and are now renewing friendships.

Gleaned From The Bright Side Of Life

By SARGE CLARK and OTHERS

I read a real piece of journalistic art in the Tacoma News-Tribune recently, to wit:

"There was a splendid reception for Leon Rice, tenor. More than 200 eagerly absorbed the thrilling tones that poured forth from that splendid vocal organ, tones rising and falling with such ease as might some wind of heaven. Yet it was perfect art that controlled that one production, especially where, at its fullest strength, it finished with pulsating breaths like visible tone waves. One asked: 'Does your voice do that to you, or do you do that to your voice?'"

BUICK TO SPONSOR
FIGHT BROADCAST
ON RADIO JUNE 22

Buick will be host to the nation at the championship Jim Braddock-Joe Louis fight to be held in Chicago, June 22, according to Campbell Brothers Buick dealers here, who announced today that the factory has signed contracts for the broadcast of the event over a nationwide NBC hookup.

"I received word today from W. F. Hufstader, our general sales manager, that Buick again will sponsor the major fight broadcast of the year, as it sponsored the Baer-Louis and Schmelling-Louis scraps last year and year before", Colin Campbell said. This is 1937's 'battle of the century' and while everybody can't go to the ringside, the ringside will be brought by Buick to millions of radio listeners all over the country."

Campbell said that the largest radio hookup ever to broadcast a major fight will be employed by Buick. This will consist of 125 stations of the NBC's red and blue networks. Stations KGO-Oakland and KPO-San Francisco will carry the broadcast locally.
